TO THE UNKNOWN PATRON.

THis work I did intend to Mercury,
Before his wings were ſick, and he could fly:
But now the Gods incenſed, all together
Have layd diſeaſes upon every feather:
(Alas) he cannot raiſe himſelfe nor carry
His plumes, as does the reſt of all the Ayrie:
But is retired to ſome ſhady Grove,
To hide him from the great incenſed Jove.
And where to find my Patron to deliver
This little worke of mine; I know not, neither
If he were found (and no diſcretion loſt)
This title might offend him, or me moſt.
Now all ye Gods beare witneſſe, I intend
Onely to ſhew a bounden thankfull mind

To the unknown Patron.

Unto this Mercurie, by whoſe quicke fire
My Muſe being lately wounded did reſpire.
And whether ſinne of theſe two be the leſſe?
A feare in Conſcience, or unthankfulneſſe,)
Judge Heavens; And vouchſafe me onely this,
What's well intended be not tooke amiſſe.
And now goe on my Booke, and ſeeke about,
Till thou haſt found this unknown Patron out:
And tell him thou cam'ſt from an unknowne friend,
Whoſe Love's a Circle, round, without an end.

Ante leves ergo, &c.

TO

THE SAME PATRON,

THE GREAT MASTER

of this MYSTERIE.

Our Author payeth this,

In part of a more ſumme due.

To the Reader.

IT may be objected unto me, that the collation of these things, is not all made up and digested into this fabrique of mine owne materials and structure, and I do ingeniously confesse it: Seeing the foure Treasuries were collected by M. Agard, his private notes, a man very industrious and painefull in that kinde; and one, who had continuall recourse unto the most, and custody of many of the rest of the same: And the latter Callender of the Records of the Tower, came to my hands from an Author unknown, even as the printer was drawing the last sheete of the precedent worke from the presse, I was content to give it wharsage, and to let it be laid on shore with the rest, but very unwillingly; because, I had no convenient roome left where to dispose it, without blaming of my Methode, in that it was not laid in his proper place, with the rest that is under the Title of the Tower, in the first Station: whereof I hope an equall censure, ever resting.

Sub rostro Cyconiè.

THE TOWER.

THe Tower followes by due course, being the Repositorie of the Chappell of the Rolls of the Chancerie, to receiue their older Records, which are more ancient then primo of Richard the third. All which, the Master of the Rolles heretofore hath sent ouer to the Tower. And keepes in the Chappell, onely those that are of more Recencie.

So it plainely appeareth; that the Tower hath the like Records, as the Chancerie Chappell.

Here is one Kalender called the Booke of Names, made by way of Alphabet, containing the Names of all men whoſe Offices or Inquiſitions, taken after their deaths, are there to to be found. In which you may ſee what Lands any ſuch dyed ſeiſed of, with the tenure of the ſame; and in many of them finde, the laſt Wills and Teſtaments of ſuch perſons, recyted in the ſame, here, as in the Chappell of the Rolles, which Wils ſometimes are not to be found elſewhere.

Item, here are diuers Kalenders of Eſchetors bundles (viz.) one of the time of Henry the third.

Another of Richard the ſecond.

Another of Henry the fourth, and Henry the fifth.

And

And another of Edward the fourth

Item, here is one booke called the booke of Heyres, of Henry the thirds time, containing the names of ſuch perſons, as had Offices found at that time, declaring who were their Heyres, and their age; and ſometimes mentioning their Wiues, with the Countyes wherein they had any Lands.

Item, the like ſeuerall bookes are ſeuerally and reſpectiuely here made vp, of the times of Edward the firſt, Edward the ſecond, Edward the third, Richard the ſecond, Henry the fourth, and Henry the fifth.

Item, heere is one little Kalender by way of Alphabet, containing ſuch Mannors and Lands, as are found in any the aforeſaid Offices or Inquiſitions, in the County of Eſſex, but not perfect.

Item, the like booke of the County of Lincolne. And the like of the County ty of Bedford. The like of Berkes. The like of Buckingham. And one great booke, the like, for the Counties of Somerſet, Dorſet, Devon, and Cornewall. But not by way of Alphabet.

Item, heere is a Kalender and Collection out of the old Rolles, called Charta antiquam, without date.

Item, a like Kalender of the Rolles of King Iohn: a like of Henry the third, from the firſt till the eleuenth of his Raigne: a Kalender and Collection of all Graunts of Inheritance, granted by any of our Kings before Richard the third, and ſo ancient as there are any Records here; and this with the like, was tranſmitted hither out of the Chancerie.

Item, here be certaine Rolles of Edward the firſt, for his whole raigne.

Item, two bookes or Kalenders of Free Warrens, Markets, Fayres, Leets, and other Liberties; gathered out of the the Charter Roll, of the time of Edward the first, and during his whole Raigne.

Item, an old Kalender of Charters of Corporations, and other Liberties granted of Cities, Boroughes, Abbyes, Colledges, and Cathedrall Churches, during the whole Raigne of Edward the first.

Item, a Kalender or Collection of the Parliament Rolles of Artayndors, Restitutions, Resumptions: from the twenty ninth of Henry the third, till the end of his raigne.

Item, certaine paper Rolles for confirmations of Charters, and Liberties of Colledges, Corporations, and religious Houses. And for Licences of Lands to be giuen in Mortmaine, from the first of Edward the first, till the last of Edward the fourth, done by way of Alphabet.

Item, one booke of Confirmations of Charters, of Liberties of Colledges, Corporation, and religious Houſes; and for Licenſes of Lands to bee giuen in Mortmaine (as aforeſaid;) collected out of the Patent and cloſe Rolles of all the time of Edward the ſecond: except two or three of the laſt yeares.

Item, certaine ſmall bundles of looſe Papers of like nature, by way of Alphabet, of ſundry Kings times, confuſedly layd together

Item, a collection of the Patent Rolles, gathered of all Preſentations, made by the King to any Church Prebendarie, or Chappell; as well, in the right of the Crowne, as in the right of any other, (the ſame beeing for that time in the hands of the King) from primo of Edward the firſt, till the midſt of the raigne of Edward the third.

Here be two bookes, the one, of the Taxation of all the Spirituall Liuings in England: The other of the Temporalties.

Item,

Item, the ancient Perambulations of the Forreſts.

Some Parliament buſineſſes &c.

Some Forreigne buſineſſes (as Treaties) &c.

The Fees heere.

The Fees heere are the like in all things as in Chancerie: Saue onely that the Search of any thing heere is tenne Shillings.

THE EXCHEQVER

followes.

THe chiefe Records of the Exchequer, are in the cuſtody of the Lord Treaſurer; and the two Chamberlaines there. And of the two Remembrancers, viz. The Kings Remembrancer, and the Lord Treaſurers Remembrancer.

The Records in the Kings Treaſuries at Weſtminſter, being foure, of which the Lord Treaſurer and the Chamberlaines berlaines haue the cuſtody, may be deuided thus,

Records { 1. Forreigne, as Leagues, or Treaties, betweene Prince and Prince, or States of ſundry Nations.
2. Domeſticall, and they are of foure ſorts.

Viz.

1. Such as concerne matters of Eſtate, and the Crowne onely.
2. Pleading betwixt the King and Subiect for preſeruing of the Kings Prerogatiue.
3. Pleadings betweene Subject and Subject.
4. Accompts of the King; and concerning ſome of his Lands, and ſome of the Subiects alſo.

All which Records and Monuments, are layd vp for their better preſeruation, in foure ſeuerall Treaſuries: except ſome few, kept in priuate Officers hands, whereof mention ſhall bee hereafter made; vnder three ſeuerall Keyes, kept by three ſundry Officers, diſtinct the one key from the other. And vpon each doore three lockes, all which foure Treaſuries and their places, with their Records in them contained, I ſhall hereafter ſet forth and declare.

Trea-

Treaſuries.

The foure Treaſuries their Places.

1. The firſt, in the Court of Receipt.
2. The ſecond, in the New Pallace of Weſtminſter.
3. The third, in the late diſſolued Abbey of Weſtminſter, in the old Chapiter Houſe.
4. The fourth, in the Cloyſter of the ſayd Abbey:

And ſo much for their places.

For your better direction, I ſhall deliuer, what Records are to bee found in euery of theſe Treaſuries, reſpectiuely.

But by the way, and before I begin

to

to ſhew what Records are in euery Treaſury; it is fit I ſhould ſhew you, what particular Records, vſe to remaine in the hands of priuate Officers, on the Receipt ſide.

The firſt, with the Remembrancer of the Receipt; which is now the Office of Sir ROBERT PYE, who hath the keeping of all Priuy Seales. And Inrollment of Patents, and Warrants, for the Iſſuing of Treaſure. And the accompts thereof from the Tellers, whereof, hee hath a great number in Bags and Preſſes, in an Office cloſe by the Court of Receipt. And in another Office which he hath below, neare his houſe.

The next, is the Clarke of the Pelles; now, Sir EDVVARD WARDORS Office, who keepeth the two Pelles, called Redditus, and Introitus, of both ſorts; whereof hee hath a particular Office, in a roome neare to the Court of of Receipt, which records are from EDVVARD the firſt, till this preſent.

And now to the foure Treaſuries.

The firſt is; the Treaſurie of the Court of Receipt. In which are,

Two of the ancienteſt Bookes of Records in this Kingdome: made in WILLIAM the Conquerours time, called Doomeſ-day.

The one Booke in Quarto, containing the Deſcription or Surucy of Eſſex, Norfolke, and Suffolke.

The other in Folio, being the like, for all the Shires in England, from Cornwall, to the Riuer of Tyne.

Here is a Booke, called the blacke Booke, made in HENRY the ſeconds time, De neceſſarijs Scarij obſeruandis: And in the ſame, are the Oathes and Admittances of Officers inrolled, and other Notes of ſome conſequence.

Item, heere is a Patent Roll of EDVVARD the ſeconds time.

Item, a booke in Parchment of the Perambulation of all the Kings Forreſts beyond Trent. And the Iuſtice-Seate held in them, by the Deputyes of the Lord Cromwell: Iuſtice there made in the time of HENRY the eight.

Item, a Bag of canvaſſe of ſpeciall Records, abbreuiated into a ſheet of Paper being in the Bag:

Item, the ancient Keyes of the Treaſurie of the Leagues, in the Cloyſter of Weſtminſter Abbey in a Cheſt.

Item, ſundry Bags of Foyles of Sheriffes, and Bayliffes tallyes, which by default of Order in the Pype Office, were neuer joyned

Item, ſundry Books of Remembrances, and Abbreuiations of Records.

Item, the Seale of the Court of Receipt in ſiluer, very ancient, with the Kings Kings face in it, and theſe words following about it, Sigillum Officij Receipt. Succeſſ. Regis Angliæ.

There is a little Roome adjoyning to the ſame Courts, wherein are three Cheſts, In which are Records placed, viz.

THe firſt Cheſt next to the Doore, containeth Pleadings of Quo Warranto coram Iuſticiarijs itinerantibus, and Placita Coronæ, and Placita de Iur. & Aſſ. in and through the moſt part of the Shires of England, in King EDVVARD the firſts time. Onely ſome two ſhires put into a Bag, and ſome one ſhire, for the more eaſie finding and Preſeruation thereof.

The next Cheſt beyond that, hath three Diuiſions in it.

THe firſt diuiſion being on the right hand, hath in it a very faire Booke in Parchment in Folio, containing an abbreuiation of the two former ſpoken Bookes of Doomeſ-day verbatim, with that Booke in the Exchequer, called Doomeſ-day, in the cuſtody of the Kings Remembrancer there.

Item, another large booke in Parchment, contayning the Inrollment of Popes Bulles, Deeds of Lands, conueyed to the Prince by ſundry Perſons; Some Leagues with Princes, eſpecially of Wales, &c. The Inrollment of the Statutes of Wincheſter, and Gloceſter, &c.

THE REMEMBRANCERS FOLLOVV.

The Remembrancers are two:

Viz. { The Kings, and The Lord Treasurers.

NOw what Records are appropriated to either Remembrancer, concerning the businesses of their Offices reſpectiuely, appeares by an eſpeciall order made for the purpoſe, by Sir Richard Lyſter Knight, Lord Chiefe Baron of the Exchequer: Dated in Iuly, in the fiue and twentyeth yeare of the raigne of King HENRY the eighth, which remaines with the Kings Remembrancer.

And moſt of the buſineſſes of the Remembrancers, are taken out of an Originall or Extract, which the Chancerie tranſmitteth yearely into the Exchequer, to collect and recouer thereout, and thereby, any thing that is reſerued or due to the Crowne, whether it be Rent Seruice, Accompt, or whatſoeuer elſe; whereby any profit may ariſe to the Crowne, either caſually, or certainely. By which originall, growes that great correſpondency, which is betweene the Exchequer, and the Chancerie.

Now beſides the buſineſſes and Records cords which Sir Richard Lyſter aſſigned and ſet forth out of the ſaid Originall, as proper to the Kings Remembrancer:

Heere is,

And ſo much ſhall ſuffice for the two Remembrancers, &c.

Fi

It ſhall not be amiſſe, that mention be made of the manner how the Deputy Chamberlaines haue demeaned themſelues in the exerciſes of their Offices, being in the Court, and what qualities were needfull for them, in their places.

FIrſt, it is needfull for them to haue a reaſonable good knowledge, in the Latine and French tongues, for Latine, to vnderſtand, reade, and examine the Tailles, which they muſt doe publikely; Alſo, to vnderſtand the Records, and to know the diuerſitie of their natures: For the French, to tell the numbers in examining the Tailles, and eſpecially, to vnderſtand the Records, whereof ſundry both of State and otherwiſe, are in French, and eſpecially, in Monſtre le Droits, and Treatyes betweene Prince and Prince.

After the Tailles be examined, the charge of the Foyles is onely in the Chamberlaynes, to deliuer them ſafe ouer to the other two Deputyes on the Chequer ſide, to joyne the ſame.

In ſearching the Booke of Domeſdei, is to bee avoyded, laying bare hands or moyſture, vpon the writing thereof, and blotting.

In copying of Notes, out of the ſame Booke of Domeſdei, you muſt write it as neare as you can, to the Letter thereof, obſeruing both the great Letters, and the poynts therein, which are prickes with a Pen: thus,

For

For Yorkeſhire, you haue a Kalender onely, which, if you obſerue the manner of it, will maruailouſly ready the Searcher, for thereby you ſhall find a Towne ſooner, and the places wherein the booke doth mention the ſame.

There is a booke of Domeſdei, made by Maſter Arthur Agard, the late Officer there, remaining in the Treaſury, which if you peruſe, it will ready the Searcher much, both for the reading, and for the ſomewhat better vnderſtanding thereof.

There is a booke, abbreuiated of the bag of Parliament Rolles, of EDVVARD the firſts time, which is yet amongſt Placita Foreſte, in the bag intituled; De diuerſis Foreſtis, they are very ſtately Records, Ideo quere.

There is an abridgement in a Parchment booke, of all the Pleadings of EDVVARD the firſts time: intituled, Placita Coram Domino Rege, with a Kalender thereunto, of EDVVARD the ſecond, EDVVARD the third, and RICHARD the ſeconds time, and HENRY the fourth, and HENRY the fifth.

Alſo, an abridgement in a booke of a great number of Records of Aſſizes, in ſundry Kings times; whereof, the moſt are put in a Bag of Canuaſſe, and layd in a Cheſt next to the Court of Receipt, in the little roome there, which you may find readily by the number Roll, and the Kings time, indorſed with this note:

Strut. } & } Abbreu.

There is alſo abridged ſome other Records, of Placitam coram Domino Rege & de banco', for Richard the firſt, King Iohn, Henry the third, Edward the third, firſt, Edward the ſecond, Edward the third, Richard the ſecond, Henry the fourth, & alſo all Henry the fifths time: Which Bookes and Records, ought neyther to bee giuen or lent away to any, leaſt they returne not againe, whereby they may turne to the Glory of GOD, the ſeruice of our Soueraigne Prince, and the good of the Subiect, and the better readineſſe of them that ſhall ſucceed in the place, to whom is wiſhed increaſe of knowledge.
